

Socially Speaking

With Athena

Garden City has lost yet another Volunteer Organization, the Garden City League for the Helen Keller Services For The Blind.

Established in 1961, they were devoted money raisers for the HKSB and over the years raised $579,539 for Camp Helen Keller. The late Dorothy Candiotti was a leading light in that organization and it is with great sadness that I have to report its demise.

Web services by our-hometown.com
Newspaper web site
content management
software and services

RSS

Add to My Yahoo!